

Are you worried about what Child Safe Standards mean for your business?

Safe Spaces gives you simple, expert guidance, without the overwhelm.

Are you in a business that works with children, like dance schools, sporting clubs, art programs or drama groups? Are you unsure about the upcoming Child Safe Standards, what's required, or even just where to start?

Safe Spaces is here to help with tailored, one-on-one guidance that shows you a clear path to prepare for these new standards without stress, guesswork, or having to put your hand in your pocket.

Here's how it works.

Each participating business will receive:

A private 3-hour consultation with our experts to:

- ✓ Understand your current practices
- ✓ Identify any gaps
- ✓ Create a customised roadmap to steer you towards implementation

Access to sector specific safe guarding tools:

- ✓ Practical checklists
- ✓ Easy to use templates
- ✓ Step by step guides

A 1-hour check-in

- ✓ To answer questions, review progress, and make sure you are moving ahead with confidence and control.

When you work with our Safe Spaces Experts, you can avoid:

- Hours lost trying to interpret complex government sites
- The stress of not knowing where to begin
- Risking reputational or financial damage from finding yourself unprepared
- Last-minute panic as deadlines approach

Get the peace of mind knowing that you are protecting your children and your business, while meeting your obligations and securing future work.

At Safe Spaces, we believe that every child deserves to feel safe and protected, no matter where they go.

We know you do too.
