Consultancy Services

Did you know?

At Social Care Solutions, we are experts in the child protection industry and have a wealth of knowledge, and skills to assist organisations to build, change, grow, improve and review programs, projects and teams.

What sets us apart?

- We are independent, objective and highly experienced in child protection with an in-depth knowledge of national and international child protection laws and policies.
- We are collaborative, professional and effective communicators which allow us to seamlessly navigate through complex information, ensuring clarity and empathy.
- Cultural competence is a defining characteristic of who we are. We recognise the significance of diverse cultural backgrounds, including LGBTQIA individuals. We tailor our strategies to be both inclusive and culturally appropriate, ensuring we respect and embrace the unique contexts and needs of children, young people and families, irrespective of their sexual orientation or gender identity. We have a designated Cultural Liaison Officer to facilitate effective communication and understanding between our service providers and First Nations children, young people, and families we support.
- We offer individualised and tailored support to meet your organisation's needs. We use a co-design approach to ensure we achieve milestones and deliver on key outcomes throughout each project.
- With a Project team skilled across child protection, domestic and family violence, housing/homelessness, disability, child care/early education, family support and mental health, we can provide specialised, bespoke services and products.

Why work with us?

We are not just experts in our field. We are award winning, passionate leaders, practitioners and assessors, driven by our core values to provide specialist child protection consultancy services to holistically improve outcomes for children, young people and families in care.
